On Saturday, February 7th, 1846, Mr. James Richardson called at the Drug Store of J. Kidd & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth street, Pinsburgh, Pa., and made the inflowing statement - "A child of mine had been very sick for some ten days - we has given her purgative medicines, but it and done her an good. One of our neighbors came in and said it was Worms that was destroying the coild, and at the same time spake of the wonderful elects the had witnested f am using Dr. Minne's Horm Societe, in that neighborhood. We procure: a vi i-gave one tenspoonful, and the child dischafges for years worm a. I then gave mother tenspoonful, which cought or year more, making in all sights eight Worms. As a duty I owe to you, and the community at large, I freely make known these facts. My child is now well. What is most remarkable, the Warm Societ expelled the Wolms alive, in about lour hours after I gave it that a child."
